

MEMBERSHIP BENEFITS

The following is a comparative list of benefits to being a member versus an affiliate of APSIA.

| OFFERING                                       | MEMBER              | AFFILIATE              |
|--|---------------------|------------------------|
| Dean's Meeting*                                | Invitation included | Included               |
| Listed on APSIA's website                      | Included            | Included               |
| Monthly Newsletter                             | Included            | Included               |
| Use of APSIA Logo                              | Included            | Included               |
| Participation in Deans' Google Group           | Member Deans' Group | Affiliate Deans' Group |
| APSIA Innovation Award                         | Open to nominations | Open to nominations    |
| Participation in Staff Tracks & Working Groups | Included            | Not included           |
| Annual Staff Meetings                          | Invitation included | Not included           |
| Voting Rights on Governance & Affairs          | Included            | Not included           |
| Weekly Jobs Listings                           | Included            | Not included           |
| Recruitment Fairs                              | Included            | Not included           |
| Live Presentation Requests                     | Included            | Not included           |
| Opportunity to Host the APSIA Forum            | Included            | Not included           |
| Career Outcomes Survey                         | Included            | Not included           |
| Admissions & Enrollment Surveys                | Included            | Not included           |
| Online Employer Events                         | Included            | Not included           |
| ANNUAL DUES                             | $7,500      | $2,000         |

*The Dean's Meeting is an annual in-person gathering of member and affiliate school deans to discuss curriculum development, best practices and current topics, joint degrees, fundraising, faculty hiring, and enrollment trends.